

Yukiko Nonaka

Artist Statement:

There are various hexagonal shapes in nature. Bubbles. Snowflakes. Honeycomb. The hexagon is a 'perfect' design by nature.

'Perpetual Hexagons' portrays an activity where small and fragile individuals link by beautiful magic. They assemble, layer, make strong connections as influencing each other to head into unknown directions.

CV:

Design Centre Enmore, Diploma of Jewellery and Object Design, Expected Graduation 2014

Tsukuba University, Master of Fine Art (Japanese Painting), 1996

Tsukuba University, Bachelor of Art and Design, 1994