

Andrew Sullivan

Back to Zero

15 May - 8 June

Opening Event
18 May 3-5pm

Stanley Street gallery
SYDNEY

Andrew Sullivan is a renowned Sydney based artist, living and working on Gadigal land. He is a previous winner of the Sulman Prize, a finalist in the Archibald, the Blake Art Prize, the Mosman Art Prize, just to name a few! With a career spanning 30 years, Sullivan has exhibited extensively, and his works adorn both institutional and private collections.

Sullivan's practice is known for being idiosyncratic, saturated with detail, accompanied by a wicked sense of humour. He creates complex still lifes and portraits. His narratives rigorously weave through memory, melancholy and history.

While Sullivan's penchant for detail is evident, one must approach his works closely to fully appreciate their luminosity and meticulousness. Each piece possesses a unique personality, inviting viewers on a journey through time and prompting contemplation on deeper levels.
